RE: ITW IPA APPLICANT - PROOF OF SALES

Dear Author,

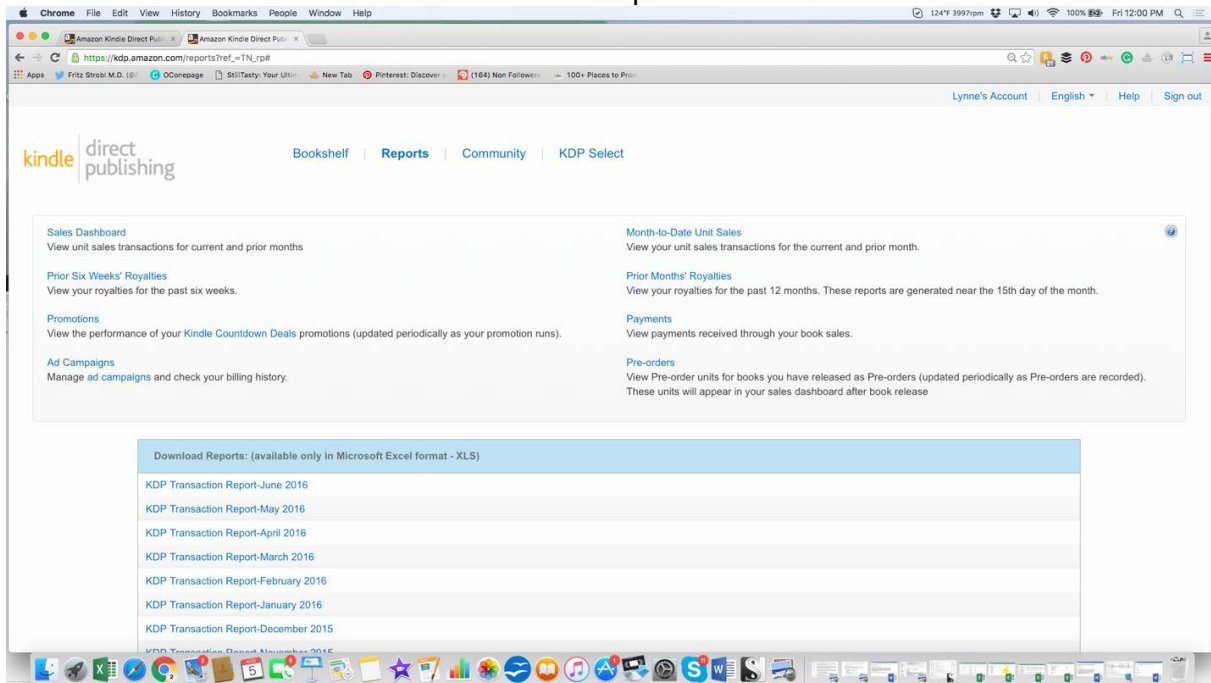

Thank you for your application for membership to International Thriller Writers. Before we can consider your application, we require documentation of proof of sales.

To be considered as an approved independent author, we ask that you demonstrate your commitment to being a novelist, which is why we inquire about how many books you've published and how many sales you've realized.

If Amazon is your primary distributor, please forward the following reports from your KDP account:

Prior Month's Royalties:

- Select a report for the past 12 months and download
- Attach Excel files with the data or take a screen shot as we have done to illustrate where to find this report...

Thank you and we look forward to considering your application.

Best wishes,

ITW Publishers Committee
